BRAZIL ROUTS 'ROOS AGAIN ROMARIO THE DESTROYER

IT'S ALL OVER BAR THE SHOUTING

- Box Hill's Craig Davidson got the better of Heidelberg goalscorer Lou Theodosopoulos with this unorthodox tackle on Sunday, but Lou had the last laugh as Heidelberg went on to win.
 - Thanks to its massive goal difference, Heidelberg has wrapped up the State League title with one round left to play.
- ALL THE STATE LEAGUE DETAILS COMMENCE ON PAGE..... 8

The Socceroos, on a high after that stunning 1-0 victory over Yugoslavia, have that morning-after feeling today, their euphoria shattered by a 3-0 trouncing from Brazil.

The scoreline could have been worse too, had not Jeff Olver saved a penalty from Romario.

The Socceroo forwards' failure in front of goal, so apparent against Yugoslavia was their downfall this time, coupled with the fact that they once more ran into their nemesis, in the shape of Romario Farias, known to soccer fans the world over simply as Romario.

Romario, small but built like a pocket battleship carried too many guns for the Socceroos in the Bicentennial Gold Cup and on Tuesday night in Seoul's Dong-daemon Stadium he ripped our lumbering defence to shreds.

He brought back memories of Pele, the man he might eventually supplant in the affections of Brazil-ians, with a hat-trick, to earn unstinting praise from Frank Arok.

"The little bastard's too quick and strong", he said afterwards "Whenever Brazil wins it is Romario. Always Romario".

With Yugoslavia bouncing back to defeat Nigeria 3-1, the Socceroos are left with a mountain to climb.

They need to beat Nigeria by a big margin tonight (Thursday), and hope for a repeat performance from Brazil against Yugoslavia to have any chance of going forward to the next round.

YET ANOTHER REFEREE ASSAULTED

Grade One referee John Rutter is the latest referee to be assaulted in one more disgraceful incident of crowd misbehaviour.

Rutter officiated in the Provisional League Third Division game between Parkmore and Meadow Park.

Near the end of the game he sent off Parkmore's Joe Palinkas and after he had blown the final whistle, he was approached by a spectator who threw a bucket of water over him.

He was then surrounded by spectators and hit from behind.

BYT TALENT DRAIN CONTINUES Remember Alistair Edwards?

The tall, extremely skilful midfielder from West Australia started in last year's AIS team, and was much sought after by Eastern NSL clubs.

Now Edwards, frustrated by the lack of opportunity for top-class soccer in Western Australia has become the latest example of the continuing talent drain by signing for Rangers (that's Rangers as in Glasgow).

It's a double blow for Aussie soccer, coming as it does right on the heels of Robbie Slater's announcement that he is going to Yugoslav Club Hajduk Split straight after the Olympics.

FAWKENTUS OR JUVENTNER? After exercising your brains on that little teaser, what about thinking up another name in case the two relegated Italian clubs, Fawknor and Juventus go ahead with their marriage of convenience?

Up to this season it has at least brought us the English Football League coverage,

IT WAS AUSTRALIAN SOCCER'S PROUDEST MOMENT Seoul Monday

AUSTRALIAN soccer's proudest moment arrived in Kwangju late yesterday when the Socceroos opened their Seoul Olympic campaign with a brilliant 1-0 win over Los Angeles Games bronze medalist, Yugoslavia.

One goal difference was all coach Frank Arok could ever have prayed for, yet it so easily could have been 2-0 or 3-0 against one of Europe's most accomplished sides and the country which has won more Olympic soccer medals than any other.

Socceroos captain Charlie Yankos incredibly went wide of the net with the keeper beaten with a shot from the penalty spot in the 88th minute, while striker David Mitchell hit the left hand post with a header, and substitute Vlado Bozinoski missed with the keeper on the ground — all in an awesome second half onslaught on the Yugoslav goal.

The 4-1 victory over world champions Argentina in the recent Gold Cup pales into significance by comparison with yesterday's victory. That was essentially a friendly international, the win over Yugoslavia was scored in deadly serious Olympic competition. "This is the greatest moment ever for the Socceroos," said a pale and emotionally-drained Arok. "This will be a lift for the entire Australian team. We couldn't have asked for a better start." marconi goal shark Frank Farina became the hero of all Australia in the fifth minute of the second half when he speared onto a delightfully-delivered through ball from Alan Davidson, stood up substitute keeper Stevan Sijonovic, then crashed a left-footer into the corner of the net.

And just as the Australians had anticipated, the Yugoslavs completely fell to pieces arguing among themselves and launching three wild shots at the Socceroos' goal within the next 10 minutes.

The Socceroos, by contrast, were a model of composure and concentration. Time and again the Yugoslavs swept the ball into the Australian goal square only to be met by a solid wall of gold jerseys. There was even a touch of insolence about the Australian as they turned the ball back to goalkeeper Jeff Oliver as the frustrated Yugoslavs milled around.

It is almost inexcusable to single out individual Australians for special commendation, and Arok would not even hear of anything but praise for the entire team. Yet Footscray midfielder Oscar Crino even had the Yugoslav press singing his praises as he repeatedly thrust himself between the ball and the Australian goal.

Behind him, Oliver was as unflappable as Arok is excitable. He blocked two threatening Yugoslav shots in the scoreless first half, the second a powerful header from striker Predrag Spasic from point-blank range. The ball ricocheted off Oliver's chest but he regathered in an instant and clutched the ball to his body as though it were his life's savings.

The Socceroos were certainly no shrinking violets. Four yellow cards were handed out against them, the worst 'offence' coming from striker Graham Arnold when he accidentally kicked Yugoslav's No.1 keeper Gradje Lekovic in the head as he dived for a spilled ball in front of goal. Central defender Robbie Dunn was given another for an incident in back play while Oliver and skipper Yankos both were given the yellow card for time wasting as the Australians tried everything to protect their one goal advantage.

The yellow cards were the last thing on the Australians' minds as they hurriedly left the Kwangju ground to catch a late-night flight back to Seoul, but they will need to keep them in mind when they play a gold medal favourites Brazil at the Tongasium Stadium tomorrow (Tuesday).

Should any of the four players receive a second yellow, they will be automatically suspended for Thursday's match against Nigeria, also to be played in Seoul.

Arok refused to speculate on the Socceroos' chances against Brazil until after he had had a long drink, but the Australians cannot be discounted on their electrifying form yesterday.

Even should they lose, they would still qualify for the quarter-finals if they defeat Nigeria, and that appears to be a result very much within their ambitious reach.

COACHES, players, administrators, referees — all are taken into consideration in the judging for the Andy Kun Trophy for the Victorian Soccer Personality of the Year.

Presented at the VSF Annual Meeting, the Award is the most egalitarian available.

Last year it went to Jeff Oliver for his goalkeeping in the Presidents Cup in Seoul and in Australia's victory on penalties over Everton at Olympic Park.

Who will it be this year? The judges have been deliberating for more than a month trying to decide between a long list of possibilities, including:

PAUL WADE — Soccer's Mr Nice Guy who impresses referees as much as he impresses fellow players as well as spectators — hence his triumph in the recent NSL Rothmans Medal count. An inspiring presence in the South Melbourne Hellas and Socceroo midfields and a true sportsman. He won the NSL championship while with Juventus and the Soccer Action Player of the Year Award while with Green Gully.

HANS PETERSEN — Returned to coach in April to take over Ringwood Wilhelmina which was then at the bottom of the State League ladder and transformed it into one of the most fierce sides in the competition.

Whilst Heidelberg United and Thomastown were edging forward with scoreless draws, Ringwood scored no less than twelve goals in two games!

Last weekend Petersen's men added three more, making it fifteen in three games. Petersen was a star forward with Ringwood Wilhelmina, Hakoah and George Cross in the 60's, and also represented Australia.

His success as a junior coach at Port Melbourne is legendary. The players

ANDY KUN AWARD COVERS A WIDE FIELD

By LAURIE SCHWAB of The Age

he developed there include his own son Mike, who is in Seoul with the Socceroos, Andrew Zinni, Mehmet Durakovic, Peter Tsolakis and Aki Kotzamichalis. Peterson also had a stint as player coach of Hollandia, the club now known as Brisbane Lions.

CHRIS BAMBRIDGE — Already voted Australian Referee of the Year, he is now in Seoul and has the distinction of having refereed at the World Cup, the Olympics, the World Youth Championship and the Under 16 World Cup.

The man who disallowed that Spanish goal against Brazil in 1986, he also put on a fearless display in the recent NSL Grand Final, sending off two players an awarding a penalty just before the end of extra time. Throughout it all he retains his sense of humour smiling all the while.

OSCAR CRINO — He now fits into two categories, player and official, having become part owner of Footscray JUST. When JUST was wowing one and all with its superior play (without necessarily turning it into goals) Crino was invariably the source of inspiration. In a 1-0 loss to Brazil in the Bicentennial Gold Cup in Melbourne, he was the best player on the field — not a bad effort against some of the finest players in the world.

And we saw more of his magic in the second half against Yugoslavia in Seoul on Sunday.

it accurately even without looking. Apart from being South's top scorer this year, he also helped create most of the team's other goals.

ALAN DAVIDSON — Bidding farewell to international soccer in Seoul, Davidson will, however, continue playing club football with Melbourne Croatia.

He stepped on to the international stage in 1979 with the National Youth team, and now, nine years later, he is better than ever, as we saw against Yugoslavia when he intercepted the ball on the right, swept upfield and picked out Frank Farina with a magical pass that resulted in Australia's winning goal.

He was the outstanding player of the Bicentennial Gold Cup and also the best player of the final against Brazil. He has had his share of disappointments — including a serious back injury which almost put him out of soccer — but he always bounced back, stronger and more determined than ever. Davidson is a former winner of the Andy Kun trophy.

PAUL TRIMBOLI — Rated by his fellow-players as the No.1 forward in Australia, he joined South Melbourne Hellas from George Cross early this year, was elevated to the Socceroo squad for the Bicentennial Gold Cup and then voted 1988 Under/21 Player of the Year. His skill is impeccable. Give him the ball anyway you like and he'll control it with one touch, while sliding away from his opponent at the same time. He knows what is "on" before he gets the ball and can relay LEO YOANNIDIS — Diligent and personable Heidelberg United Alexander president who, together with Jim Kriens, picked up the pieces of the club when it was relegated from the NSL, and put them together again.

MIKE MICEVSKI — destined to become one of our finest coaches, this former Socceroo had Altona Gate Vardar on top of the First Division ladder for most of the season, until injuries caused the team to slip behind Frankston Pines.

Vardar played an exciting, skilful brand of soccer all season, and has been promoted to the State League for 1989.

Yoannidis and his administration wiped off a huge portion of the club's debts, rebuilt the team, constructed an impressive VIP lounge and press box at the Olympic Village and is now poised for promotion back to the NSL for 1989.

DANNY MCMINIMEE — former player who has turned into a talented, hard working studios coach taking Frankston on Pines to the top of the First Division ladder and into the State League next season.

ALF BULIC — Spear-headed the drive that led to Ken Knight becoming the major part-owners of the first privately-owned NSL club, Footscray JUST. A millionaire builder of Balwyn, Bulic is a man of action. Building of a multi-million dollar licensed social club is well under way at Schindler Reserve, a gala international concert, featuring the outstanding recording artists of the various Yugoslav States, is being planned for later this year, and Bulic also has lined up some top class playing talent to keep the JUST turnstiles clicking in 1989 and beyond.

they in more cases than not have brought upon themselves.
4. How do we know what has occurred to get all the people you mention the sack from their job as coaches, are they all sacked for no reason at all, or might there be someone who has given the administration a hard time with this selfish attitude.

The Geelong Soccer Club has a good record with coaches but has had to dispense with quite a few because it could not get the results or the coach was not doing what was expected.

If you were employed and you didn't do the job to the satisfaction of your boss, what would happen, you would get the sack, end of story.

I agree with quite a few statements made by Bob Brian but it definitely is not a one-horse race, it takes two to tango. Yours,
Sgd. Chris Van Bok.

N.S.L. APPOINTS NEW GENERAL MANAGER

West End National Soccer League Chairman Mr Sam Papsavas has announced the appointment of Peter Russell as the League's new General Manager.

Mr Russell, born in Scotland has had a long association with Soccer, dating back to 1952, when he represented Chelsea Schoolboys.

He graduated to playing with Wimbledon FC and Cambridge City in England and Ayr United in Scotland.

He served in the Royal Airforce from 1958 to 1960 and was stationed in England.

Northern Ireland and West Germany where he played representative soccer against the Royal Netherlands Air Force and West German National Amateur team.

Peter Russell migrated to Australia with his family in 1964, and joined the NSW Police in 1966.

He was a Detective Sergeant with the NSW Police Force prior to joining the National Soccer League in February 1986.

Mr Papsavas says "Peter Russell is highly regarded by the League for his work this year under difficult circumstances." "The new re-organisation of the ASF administration can only benefit the code as a whole in this country, and with a successful domestic and international season behind us I am looking forward to the challenge of the future with optimism," says Peter Russell.

VICTORIAN LEAGUE DIVISION FOUR RESERVES BORONIA RESERVES 2 BENTLEIGH GREENS RESERVES 0

BORONIA RES: C. Bravo, M. Fawthorpe, P. Desmond, B. Clarke, M. Strahan, J. Forbes, H. Young, D. Jillings, R. Jack (D. Geoghegan 71-caution), D. Fairburn, N. Frain. Coach: H. Young. Line: art, Harrold.

BENTLEIGH GREENS RES: M. Agathocleou, K. Solonos (G. Psaropoulos H/T), G. Triantafillopoulos, C. Holmes, J. Vlasiotis, A. Athanasou, P. Nicolau, P. Myszk, A. Argiros, A. Christopoulos, P. Angelatos. Coach: P. Garry. Line: A. Georgiou.

Winding up its 1988 season with a 2-0 win in a postponed match against Bentleigh Greens last Saturday at H.V. Jones Reserve, Boronia Reserves went to the top of the league displacing leaders Langwarrin.

However, Langwarrin has to play a postponed match against bottom of the ladder Holland Park whose seniors topped their league.

Boronia's reserves had to win against Bentleigh Greens to make a points tally of 35 as against Langwarrin's 34 and having done so Langwarrin now must beat Holland Park to win the premiership.

No doubt both Langwarrin and Holland Park will boost their teams strength with seniors who have now completed their commitments.

Last Saturday Boronia's reserves had to tangle with a Bentleigh team that had been packed with five of its seniors who had recently demolished Boronia seniors 3-0.

But Boronia's player-coach, Hamish Young, kept faith in his regulars who surpassed themselves with a show of team work never before seen this season.

Boronia went to the lead in the 5th minute with a headed goal by David Fairburn from a high cross by John Forbes from the right corner.

The score was brought to a 2-0 after Fairburn beat a man near the byeline to pass to Hamish Young who in turn set up Forbes who netted to surprise the visitors again at 37 minutes.

In the second half Boronia successfully absorbed much pressure with 'keeper Bravo and defenders Fawthorpe, Desmond, Clarke and Strahan rising to the occasion brilliantly. This pressure is signified in the corners tally in which in the first half Boronia conceded none but conceded five in the second period. After such a show nobody could pick a best three for Boronia so the full team took the accolade.

Best for Bentleigh Greens: 1. C. Holmes, 2. P. Myszk, 3. A. Argiros. All three played in their team's seniors victory two weeks previously.

PROVISIONAL LEAGUE DIVISION THREE SOUTH DANDENONG 5 WANTIRNA 1

SOUTH DANDENONG: (Sepetci-30 sec. & 90 sec., Yildirim-31 & 85 min., S. Elmazovski-36 min.)

South Dandenong created an unlikely to be repeated record by scoring two goals within 90 seconds of the kick-off. A sharp burst by central striker, Yildirim, set up Sepetci to tap in an easy first goal after 30 seconds. The same two players were involved when Yildirim's pass split the defence allowing Sepetci to head his second over goalkeeper, Balgo, who was well off his line.

Yildirim collected a long ball from defender, Fus, ran through the defence and slotted home South's third goal on the half-hour mark. Five minutes later a Yildirim shot was deflected by Sam Elmazovski to post number four for the home side. A lapse in defence, two minutes from the interval, put Wantirna on the scoreboard through Belteky. Although always in command, South's second half showing lacked the precision of the first. Yildirim completed the scoring five minutes from full time.

Both teams attacked throughout and Skye broke the deadlock when Scalzo was put through and forced a penalty. Cliffe scored perfectly from the spot. Just before half-time Monash equalised with a good build up and cross from the wing. The second half was end to end stuff with both teams dominating the play for ten to 15 minute periods.

HEIDELBERG efficiently

disposed of Box Hill's challenge on Sunday in a manner befitting a League leader and now has merely to go through the ritual of playing Northcote City this Sunday to be crowned 1988 champion.

Despite a few hiccups in the second half of the season, the team that Terry Hennessy built has proved itself worthy of the title.

Congratulations to all concerned even though some of the events at the club have left a faint taste in the mouth at times.

Now, I suppose, it's on to the play-offs with Brisbane City to win the dubious privilege of playing in the NSL again, always presuming that there is going to be an NSL competition for much longer.

You need a convenient memory and a hide like an elephant to be a club president and survive, even if at times you find it difficult to look people in the eye.

Before I started this column, I refreshed my memory by reading through our issue of February 18 in which Les Shorrocks interviewed newly elected Heidelberg president Lew Yoannides.

In reply to the question "will you apply for promotion back to the NSL (if you win the League)", Yoannides said, "first things first."

"Of course we will be going all out to win the State League, we wouldn't be rebuilding if we didn't want to win the League."

"But applying for the play-offs for the NSL is a different matter, a bridge we will cross when we get to it."

"I mean, who is to say that there will be a national league next year?

"All the NSL clubs are in the red and going further into debt all the time. We don't want to go down that track again."

"In fact, it is becoming apparent now that relegation from the NSL was the salvation of Heidelberg."

You said it, Lew.

TURNING from problems of life at the top, let's look at the more pressing problems at the sharp end where club presidents are too pre-occupied with the matter of survival to worry about having to eat their words.

The bell has obviously tolled for Western Suburbs, Fawkner and Oakleigh, but for five clubs, Bulleen, Springvale City, Box Hill, Maribyrnong and Morwell Falcons it is nail-biting time.

State League Preview By BRIAN JAMES

There will be a lot of tension in the air at Raleigh Reserve where Maribyrnong plays Box Hill and at the Veneto club, where Bulleen will be taking on Springvale City.

Thankfully, the VSF has belatedly seen the light and shifted Morwell Falcons' all-important game with Thomastown from Saturday to Sunday, but apparently Bulleen wouldn't budge and its game with Springvale will go ahead on Saturday as scheduled.

Of course, Bulleen is playing Green Gully in a postponed game as we go to press, and if it beats the Greens, a lot of speculation becomes academic.

In that event, the others in the relegation gun could be biting their nails and hoping that Heidelberg wins the play-off for the NSL.

THE table for the second half of the season shows some interesting differences from the current one.

Ringwood City is the big improver of course, but that could be attributed as much to that influx of temporary visa players as to any change in coaching.

By contrast, Springvale City has shown remarkable improvement during the second half by promoting its youngsters and even if it gets relegated, which seems highly probable, its future looks bright.

SADLY, it seems that Morwell Falcons is doomed to relegation.

I say sadly, because few State League clubs have anything approaching the

as they watched it flash across the face of goal, only to see Deligiannis squeeze the ball through an acute angle between the near post and the outstretched hands of Oakleigh 'keeper Michael Alexandropoulos.

The dose was repeated in the 39th minute as Caulfield wrapped up the match, when Angie Goutzioulis rose to flick on a header to the running Deligiannis, who drove the ball home from eighteen yards and into the bottom left hand corner of the net. As the day grew darker, colder and wetter Caulfield never looked in danger of losing this encounter, however, players continued to struggle to find their footing on a somewhat embarrassing pitch and a drab second-half capped off an unentertaining match.

MAN OF
THE MATCH:

MIKE VALENTINE

Heidelberg United took a giant step towards capturing its second State League Championship since 1975, by defeating Box Hill 2-0 at Wembley Park on Sunday.

Played at a very fast and entertaining pace, this was by far Heidelberg's best performance since the appointment of Jim Tansey as coach three weeks ago. The two important goals were scored within the first half-hour of the game by the double close — season signings from Caulfield City, Lou Theodosopoulos and Con Pappas. The first goal resulted from a free-kick awarded just outside the Box Hill eighteen yard box in the eighth minute. Phil

Stubbins belted his shot straight into the five man wall from where it rebounded to Mike Valentine, whose drive luckily found Theodosopoulos a metre from the goal line. As the one way traffic continued, Box Hill fell further behind in the 30th minute. A cross from the right wing by overlapping full-back Arthur Patiniotis, was latched onto by Stubbins, who managed to get behind the Hillmen defence. Chesting the ball under control, Stubbins tried to round 'keeper John McKinlay only to slip at the last hurdle and try a fresh air shot in vain whilst still on the ground. With Stubbins and McKinlay crawling for the ball, Pappas came bursting onto the scene and put an end to this goalmouth scramble (as well as everyone's misery), with a right footed goal from approximately three metres out. In the second half the Heidelberg domination was maintained, largely due to the efforts of hard-working midfielders Mike Valentine and Claude Lucchesi. for most of this period Box Hill chased shadows and found the slick passing of Heidelberg too hot to handle. Unfortunately for Box Hill, with one game left to play for Season '88 only a mathematical miracle can ease its relegation fears.

INDUSTRIAL LEAGUE ROUND-UP

Rowville United
sowed a touch of real class in its dual crisis encounters in this round.

Its first team
needed the win over North Dandenong
Sparrows in order to protect its Runners-up guernsey from the fast-finishing Thomas-town United and Dandy Dynamo.

Its Reserves Team also needed a win over the Sparrows in order to make sure of the Division 2A
Reserves Championship,
as a loss would have dumped it to third

position, and a draw to no better than the Runners-up spot.

In the event, it managed quite handsomely to protect both positions, its Firsts winning 5-1 and its Reserves scraping home
3-2.

The loss in the Reserves match was a cruel blow to the Sparrows as it dropped them to the third spot behind the flamboyant and fast-finishing Flamingo.

The Rowville management will be well pleased with this year's results, as last year the Club was struggling at the bottom

ROWVILLE ROMPS HOME

end of the Table. The rise to Division Runners-up and Reserves Champions has been meteoric, and is the result of a lot of hard work and rigid discipline.
But if anyone thinks that the Drama of Division 2A is over, he's wrong. Who will make up the Top Four? Dandy Dynamo sits in 4th place at the moment strictly on alphabetical precedence over Flamingo.

Both Clubs have 22
points, both have 52 goals for and 32 against. Both have played 18 games and have identical win, draw and loss records. The result has forced a show down play-off next week to determine which of the two clubs goes through to the preliminary Top four engagements on October 9th.

In Division One, Middle Park made sure of the League and Reserves double when its Reserves edged out Apollo United 2-1. Apollo had some revenge in the Firsts encounter when it held the League Champions to a creditable 2-2 draw.

The Reserves result completed a remarkable year for the Parkers, as they have won both the League and Reserves Championships, and reached the semi-finals of both the Mansfield Bunney League and Invitation Cup.

While long-serving
coach, Malcolm Luckins, may be disappointed that his team did not pull off the quadruple, 1988 will certainly mark a high point in his career.

Another Club which has done remarkably well in this Division is Hampton Park United,
which has stormed home over recent weeks to make sure of the League and of the League Reserves
Runners-up double.

The Club, which made
First Division this year only as the result of a last-minute vacancy, has put some of its more experienced opposition to shame. Altona Ilinden in particular will be bitterly disappointed, as the previous Championship contenders could in the end do no better than third place.

In Division Two
Morning, Fibremakers
has finally put paid to the Montrose bogey, the latter losing in this round to Springvale Eagles, but has not yet made sure of the Reserves Championship,

as the Eagles still hang on those bare two points behind, but with a much better goal difference.
The postponed fixture between these two Clubs next week will decide the issue once and for all. But this much is certain, Fibremakers United is the Champion and Montrose is the runner-up, while in the Reserves Fibremakers and Springvale Eagles will take the two major awards.

With Fibremakers still sitting on a place in the League Cup Final, 1988
will certainly go down as this Club's most successful season ever.
The consistent inconsistency of Division Three East continued unabated in this round. Garden City
(3rd) was knocked off 4-2
by Taxation United (7th), and Bowater (4th) by Oakleigh City (9th).

As a result, Laminex by virtue of a 7-1 demolition of Kew Deaf has leapfrogged them both into the top four, while Essendon Tramway (5th) returned to its winning ways and has also sneaked into the top four play-offs.

Both Garden City and Bowater, who were sitting pretty a week ago, must be wondering what hit them.

The Oakleigh City win in particular was a surprise as the Club — which has been managing just marginally over one goal per match this season
— suddenly put on nuclear-powered shooting-boots and rockets five past a stunned Bowater defence. Scorers for the winners were George Deligiannis (2),
Peter Fotiou, Con
Varkatzos and Jim
Satilmis, while Alan Fenton and Paul Shaw replied for the visitors.

Runaway Division
leaders, Dallas United, travelled south to Keeley Kings country where the locals held them to a 1-1 scoreline until well into the second half. Dallas finally emerged the winners 2-1 and both clubs then settled down to enjoy an extremely toothsome roast sucking pig.

The top two spots
in Division Three West have also been decided with Tottenham and Altona Heights both winning in this round. Regardless of the replay between Altona Heights and Keilor Old Boys next week, the Altona combination is the 1988 Runner-up.

Also decided in this round were the top four contenders in every Division except 2A. In Division One, the contenders in order are Middle Park, Hampton
Park United, Altona
Ilinden and St Albans
Dynamo.

In Division Two
Morning, Fibremakers
United, Montrose, Youth
United and Coomoora Spiders are the candidates.

The doubts in Division Three East have been resolved, with Dallas
United, Keeley Kings, Essendon Tramways and Laminex making up the top four. In Division
Three West, the qualifiers are Tottenham, Altona Heights, St Albans
Wanderers and Keilor
Old Boys, and in Division
Four, Flemington
Florida, RAAF College,
Salesian College Old
Boys and Preston Tramways go through to October 9th.

While the double chance may save some Clubs, the near sudden death atmosphere of the top four encounters is bound to produce some surprises. While everyone will obviously have his clear favourites, the crystal ball gazers will certainly have a field day.

Meanwhile, all eyes are turned to the glamour clashes
at the Middle Park
Stadium on October
2nd. At 11 am
Glenroy Doxa
Reserves, who have won the trophy on six occasions, will kick off against Apollo
United in the Mansfield Bunney
Invitation Cup Final.

Apollo is making its first appearance in the Cup Final, but with several senior players, including dynamic Jim Kondarlos, eligible for its Reserves team, must be given a very real chance.
At 1pm a gem of a match will kick off between the Patrick All Stars-Puskas
Eleven and a JUST Old Boys Selection. Whether or not the immortal Puskas will play is still a closely guarded secret, as the All Stars wage a relentless war of nerves

against Jimmy star-Milisavjevic's star-
studded line-up.
But will the play backfire? Will the Golden Oldies tear the All Stars to shreds? All will be revealed in these columns as the days go by.

Finally, at 3 o'clock, comes the kick off in the Mansfield Bunney
League Cup Final.
Both the teams involved are playing in their first Final.

Fibremakers United
has been a member of the League for 16 years, while Windsor is in only its second season. The two teams play markedly different styles, with Fibremakers a far more close-checking combination than the innovative Greeks.

Certainly, the Mountaimen cannot afford to allow the Windsor forwards any latitude, or they will be cut to pieces. By the same token, the Windsor players will need to keep their collective cool, or the Fibremakers' Mean Machine will slowly but surely grind them down.
